Therefore, today ‘fistula first’ is the main recommendation for all patients on HD.\textsuperscript{78} As far as location goes, some authors have shown that the most distal (radiocephalic), when compared to the brachiocephalic, have lower success rates in elderly patients (one year patency of 81\% vs. 66\%, respectively); AV fistulas in the arm have been considered.\textsuperscript{79}

Should read:

Therefore, today ‘fistula first’ is the main recommendation for all patients on HD.\textsuperscript{78} As far as location goes, some authors have shown that the most distal (radiocephalic), when compared to the brachiocephalic, have lower success rates in elderly patients (one year patency of 66\% vs. 81\%, respectively); AV fistulas in the arm have been considered.\textsuperscript{79}